AMUCT

Established in 1986 AMUCT has always been in the forefront of Teacher Movement. It has the jurisdiction of three districts-DK, Udupi and Coorg under Mangalore University. But nevertheless, it has created quite an impact on higher education in this part of the country. AMUCT owns an office in the central part of Mangalore city, publishes bulletins regularly right from its inception and an interactive website updated almost on a daily basis. Being affiliated to AIFUCTO and FUCTAK, it has vibrantly pursued the issues of teachers and higher education. The privilege of hosting the Statutory Conference of AIFUCTO is a testimony for the yeomen services rendered by AMUCT.

DAKSHINA KANNADA & UDUPI

Dakshina Kannada & Udupi Districts, the two coastal districts in the state of Karnataka in India are bordered by Uttara Kannada District to the north, Chikkamagaluru district to the northeast, Hassan District to the east, Kodagu to the southeast, and Kasaragod District in Kerala to the south. The Arabian Sea bounds them on the west. These Districts have a high rate of literacy with 88.63% for Dakshina Kannada and 86.28% for Udupi which is much higher than the state average of 75.6%. With more than 200 degree colleges, one State University, 4 Deemed Universities, 8 medical colleges, 25 engineering colleges and several paramedical & professional. These districts have become a hub of higher education attracting students from all over the globe. Various education models have been experimented.

Dakshina Kannada also known as South Kanara is popularly called Tulunandu is a land of culture, tradition and rituals. Nagaradhane or Snake worship is practised according to the popular belief of the Naga Devatha to go underground and guard the species on the top. Worship of spirits is prevalent in these areas. Rituals like Bhuta Kola are done to satisfy the spirits. Kambla, a form of buffalo race on muddy track in the paddy field, is organized. Yakshagana is the popular folk art of this district. The Yakshagana is a night-long dance and drama performance practiced in Tulu Nadu with great fanfare.

COORG

Coorg rated as one of the top hill station destinations in India is known for its hospitality of people and beautiful scenery. This is one of the best destinations for nature lover in India. Tourists get fascinated by colourful scenery, wooded slopes, undulating landscape and quaint villages of Coorg. It is well known in the world for coffee and its "brave warriors". Kodagu is considered rich with wildlife and has three wildlife sanctuaries and one national park: the Brahmagiri, Talakaveri, and Pushpagiri Wildlife Sanctuaries, and the Nagarhole National Park, also known as the Rajiv Gandhi National Park.

MANGALORE

Mangalore being a cosmopolitan city is beautiful and exquisite with the mystic rivers, Arabian Sea, magnificent churches and temples and many worth seeing places. Several pilgrimage centers like Dharmasthala, Udupi, Kollur, Subramanya, Moodabidri are quite proximate. Snake Park in Pilikula, 1000 Pillar Jain Temple in Moodabidri, Bekal Fort, Ullal Darga, world famous Aloysius Chapel Paintings, Bijai Museum, etc. offer exuberant experiences. Mangalore is demographically diverse with several languages, including Tulu, Konkani, Kannada, and Beary commonly spoken, and is popularly known as the commercial capital of Karnataka. The city's landscape is characterized by rolling hills, coconut palms, freshwater streams, and hard red-clay tiled-roof buildings

AIFUCTO

The AIFUCTO with more than 4 lakh members from universities and colleges has been steadfastly working, with a great degree of commitment to uphold and strengthen national integration, a pluralistic India and quality higher education. AIFUCTO strongly professed that the aim of education is not only the provision of knowledge and skills but also the inculcation of social and constitutional values in the younger generation.

FUCTAK

The Federation of University & College Teachers Association in Karnataka (FUCTAK) is a united body of university and college teachers in Karnataka. With 8 affiliating units, FUCTAK has fought many battles for upholding the dignity and decorum of the teaching community. FUCTAK has immensely contributed in spreading the message of AIFUCTO throughout Karnataka.

MANGALORE UNIVERSITY - www.mangaloreuniversity.ac.in Mangalore University campus at Mangalagangothri, located about 20 km to the south-east of Mangalore, sets the tone for the educational endeavors of the three districts under the jurisdiction of the University. It grew out of a modest post-graduate centre of the University of Mysore to become the focal point of an independent University in 1980. The University has 25 PG Departments on the Campus with 195 affiliated colleges that include 2 constituent, 18 education and 5 autonomous colleges, a PG Centre at Coorg and has 19 Endowment Chairs.

ST ALOYSIUS COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS) - www.staloyus.edu.in St Aloysius College - the premier minority educational institution with more than 133 years in existence has been at the service of the youth of Mangalore and its environs run by the Mangalore Jesuit Education Society (MJES). The college is autonomous from June 2007 onwards and is affiliated to Mangalore University. The College offers 6 undergraduate, 6 postgraduate diploma, 17 post graduate degree and 8 doctoral programmes. Currently around 5000 students pursue their studies in the campus.
